

Capital: Bhopal
Formation / statehood: 1 November 1956 (major reorganisation; Chhattisgarh separated in 2000)
Official language(s): Hindi
Public Service Commission: MPPSC
Flagship exam: MPPSC State Service Examination

OVERVIEW

Madhya Pradesh is a large central Indian state whose name means central province. Bhopal is the capital, and the state contains extensive forest cover, Narmada river valleys, and Khajuraho medieval temple art.

FOCUS TOPICS

- Central Indian geography
- Narmada and Betwa rivers
- Khajuraho and Sanchi heritage
- Forest and wildlife areas
- MPPSC state service exam

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. What is the capital of Madhya Pradesh?

Answer: Bhopal

2. Which river originates in Amarkantak in Madhya Pradesh?

Answer: Narmada

3. Which UNESCO temple site is located in Madhya Pradesh?

Answer: Khajuraho Group of Monuments

4. Which language is the official language of Madhya Pradesh?

Answer: Hindi

5. Which Public Service Commission conducts MP state service exams?

Answer: Madhya Pradesh Public Service Commission (MPPSC)

6. Which state was carved out of Madhya Pradesh in 2000?

Answer: Chhattisgarh

7. Which stupa site near Bhopal marks an important Buddhist heritage location?

Answer: Sanchi

8. Which national park in Madhya Pradesh is known for tiger habitat in the Maikal range of the Satpura hills?

Answer: Kanha National Park

9. Which plateau region covers much of western Madhya Pradesh?

Answer: Malwa Plateau

10. Which medieval fort city near Indore is a major heritage site in Malwa?

Answer: Mandu

NOTE

This compact sheet covers stable static GK. Verify changing administrative facts, current affairs and the latest exam scheme from official state government and PSC websites.

More free practice: <https://www.mpscs.in/state-gk>