

Capital: Aizawl
Formation / statehood: 20 February 1987 (statehood)
Official language(s): Mizo and English
Public Service Commission: MPSC (Mizoram)
Flagship exam: Mizoram Civil Services

OVERVIEW

Mizoram is a hilly northeastern state with Aizawl as the capital, achieving statehood on 20 February 1987. The state has a predominantly Mizo-speaking population and is known for jhum agriculture and bamboo forests.

FOCUS TOPICS

- Mizo hills geography
- 1987 statehood
- Bamboo and horticulture
- Cheraw bamboo dance
- Mizoram PSC recruitment

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. What is the capital of Mizoram?

Answer: Aizawl

2. In which year did Mizoram become a state?

Answer: 1987

3. Which language is the principal language of Mizoram?

Answer: Mizo

4. Which traditional bamboo dance is associated with Mizoram?

Answer: Cheraw (bamboo dance)

5. Which Public Service Commission conducts Mizoram civil services exams?

Answer: Mizoram Public Service Commission

6. Which countries share an international border with Mizoram?

Answer: Myanmar and Bangladesh

7. Which shifting cultivation practice is traditionally associated with Mizoram hills?

Answer: Jhum (slash-and-burn) cultivation

8. Which peace accord of 1986 paved the way for Mizoram statehood?

Answer: Mizo Accord (1986)

9. Which harvest festival is widely celebrated in Mizoram?

Answer: Chapchar Kut

10. Which Indian states border Mizoram?

Answer: Assam, Tripura, and Manipur

NOTE

This compact sheet covers stable static GK. Verify changing administrative facts, current affairs and the latest exam scheme from official state government and PSC websites.

More free practice: <https://www.mpscs.in/state-gk>