

Capital: Jaipur
Formation / statehood: 26 January 1950 (integration of princely states; reorganised boundaries over time)
Official language(s): Hindi
Public Service Commission: RPSC
Flagship exam: RAS / RTS / Combined Competitive Exam

OVERVIEW

Rajasthan is the largest state of India by area in the northwestern Thar Desert region. Jaipur is the capital, and the state is known for Rajput forts, desert ecology, and handicraft traditions.

FOCUS TOPICS

- Thar Desert geography
- Rajput history and hill forts
- Aravalli range
- Tourism and handicrafts
- RAS examination

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. What is the capital of Rajasthan?

Answer: Jaipur

2. Which desert covers much of western Rajasthan?

Answer: Thar Desert (Great Indian Desert)

3. Which hill range runs through Rajasthan?

Answer: Aravalli Range

4. Which language is the official language of Rajasthan?

Answer: Hindi

5. Which Public Service Commission conducts RAS exams?

Answer: Rajasthan Public Service Commission (RPSC)

6. Which fort in Jaisalmer is built from yellow sandstone in the desert?

Answer: Jaisalmer Fort (Sonar Quila)

7. Which lake city in Rajasthan is known as the City of Lakes?

Answer: Udaipur

8. Which wildlife sanctuary in Rajasthan is noted for bustard habitat in the desert?

Answer: Desert National Park (Jaisalmer area)

9. Which town hosts the annual Pushkar cattle fair in Rajasthan?

Answer: Pushkar (Ajmer district)

10. Which UNESCO serial site includes Chittorgarh and Kumbhalgarh forts in Rajasthan?

Answer: Hill Forts of Rajasthan

NOTE

This compact sheet covers stable static GK. Verify changing administrative facts, current affairs and the latest exam scheme from official state government and PSC websites.

More free practice: <https://www.mpscs.in/state-gk>