

Capital: Agartala
Formation / statehood: 21 January 1972 (statehood)
Official language(s): Bengali, Kokborok, and English
Public Service Commission: TPSC
Flagship exam: Tripura Civil Services / Combined exams

OVERVIEW

Tripura is a northeastern state bordered by Bangladesh on three sides with Agartala as the capital. It became a state on 21 January 1972 and has Manikya dynasty history, bamboo handicrafts, and a largely hilly terrain.

FOCUS TOPICS

- Border with Bangladesh
- 1972 statehood
- Manikya dynasty heritage
- Bamboo and handicrafts
- TPSC civil services exam

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. What is the capital of Tripura?

Answer: Agartala

2. In which year did Tripura become a state?

Answer: 1972

3. Which country surrounds Tripura on three sides?

Answer: Bangladesh

4. Which Public Service Commission conducts Tripura civil services exams?

Answer: Tripura Public Service Commission (TPSC)

5. Which palace in Agartala is associated with the Manikya rulers?

Answer: Ujjayanta Palace

6. Which indigenous language is officially recognized in Tripura alongside Bengali?

Answer: Kokborok

7. Which rock-cut archaeological site in Tripura is linked with Shaiva worship?

Answer: Unakoti

8. Which Indian states border Tripura?

Answer: Assam and Mizoram

9. Which handicraft using bamboo is widely produced in Tripura?

Answer: Bamboo and cane craft

10. Which wildlife sanctuary in Tripura protects primate habitat in the Sepahijala area?

Answer: Sepahijala Wildlife Sanctuary

NOTE

This compact sheet covers stable static GK. Verify changing administrative facts, current affairs and the latest exam scheme from official state government and PSC websites.

More free practice: <https://www.mpscs.in/state-gk>